

31 Things to Do With Your Family at Your Home

1. Build a fort.
2. Have a movie marathon e.g. Harry Potter, Starwars, Toy Story.
3. Collect every Lego, block, and stackable item in the house and see who can build the tallest tower or longest road. Try building different things together like a house, elephant, or car.
4. Bust out the playdough.
5. On scraps of paper write out a person, place, thing or action. Family members take turn picking a scrap of paper and have to tell a story using the word is on the scrap.
6. Have a Greatest Family Bakeoff.
7. Take turns reading a short book to each other.
8. Bust out a puzzle.
9. Do family yoga. YouTube has some amazing videos.
10. Make paper airplanes and have a best flier championship.
11. Have a dance off.
12. Do some household chores.
13. Call or video chat with an extended family member.
14. Organize the closets.
15. Move the couches together to make a huge "bed" and watch some Netflix.
16. Have a sleepover in the family room.
17. Turn a kid's closet into an office. Add a small chair and table (we used a small space heater for a desk) add some books, paper and crayons and whatever toys can double as office equipment.
18. Have a karaoke Night ya'll, YouTube has all kinds of karaoke tracks.
19. Get that yard work done.
20. Create an obstacle course in your family room or backyard.
21. Tap into your inner child and play make believe; pirates, safari, fairies.
22. Make up stories, one family starts and each member takes a turn expanding the story.
23. Do a scavenger hunt. Find an Outdoor Spring Scavenger hunt here.
24. Put on a play or musical production. Film it and send it to loved ones.
25. Play a board game.
26. Cut colored paper into squares and glue them onto a large paper creating a mosaic.
27. In the bath have your kids pretend they're deep sea diving. Place heavy objects at the bottom and have lighter object floating on top. See what they can collect.
28. Bust out the paper and crayons, create a story (steal from Disney if you have to, these are desperate times) and have the kids draw the pictures.
29. Do a family meditation session. YouTube has a lot of guided meditations.
30. Paint rocks from the back yard. If you have googly eyes glue them on...pet rocks ya'll.
31. Have an art contest.
